

Figure 21. Historic aerial photographs (10/21/49- 3/13/62) depicting shoreline change along the Dudley Island shoreline and marsh complex. Dotted arrow delineates axis of the main ebb channel. Note the chronic washover “fan development” along much of the eastern frontal portion of the marsh complex.